News and Announcements from All Saints' Episcopal Church  Atlanta, Georgia

Come, Live, and Pray in the World of Passion Week

The Shortest Day and the Longest Week. Palm Sunday is a parade and then a preview of how fast human beings can turn on a dime from adulation to crucifixion. Surely the same adoring crowd who chanted, "Blessed is the One who Comes in the Name of the Lord," lined the street just five days later to scream, "Crucify him!" Palm Sunday is the truth of the need for our Savior.

On Palm Sunday morning, come at 8:30 a.m. to visit Flip Flop the donkey, then worship with us and hear a reading of the Passion and witness the raising of the Great Cross.

Our Primary and Junior choirs will be singing at the 9:00 a.m. service in Ellis Hall. In the church (9:00 and 11:15 a.m.) you'll hear tenor Jamie Clements sing "The Palms" and "Were You There", with music for choir, harp and cello by Doug Major, and "Pie Jesu" by Rhett Barnwell, sung by soprano, Jessica Lane.

Noonday Worship and Holy Week Preaching Series: The Gospel From the Margins. Sometimes it causes us to tremble to try to understand how the Lord of Life and Love came to such a deadly end, and then how such a deadly end became the gateway of new life for all. This is a mystery not to explain but to experience. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, come hear three outstanding witnesses to the Gospel on the Margins have to say.

Monday, April 10
GREG COLE,
Deputy Director for Emmaus House.

Greg has spent over twenty-five years working at the intersection of faith and money and is thrilled to work with an organization dedicated to making measurable, systemic change that results in transformed lives. While working for Habitat for Humanity, Greg developed a strong interest in community development, particularly as it pertains to poverty reduction, which led him to Emmaus House, a place-based social service mission of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta. As Deputy Director he is responsible for leading Emmaus House during its current interim period. Music: Cain-Oscar Bergeron, flutist; and Beth Chenault, piano.

Tuesday, April 11
THE REV. MARY WETZEL, vicar of the Church of the Common Ground.

"Can you believe it? We are all God's beloved!" Mary is most often seen wearing her sneakers and sharing this message with everybody she meets on the streets of Atlanta. She can often be found sharing her joy in faith at such trendy hotspots as Woodruff Park and on a street corner near you. Known as

We fattened up before Lent at a Mardi Gras Luncheon, and then again, eating plenty of pancakes and bacon on Shrove Tuesday. Then we burned last year's palms to create the ashes used the next day, Ash Wednesday.

Grace Notes

Thanks to Melanie Chastain for helping out with the Mardi Gras decorations.

Many thanks to the All Saints' Adult Choir and soloists for their amazing singing of Chilcott's "Jazz Mass" and 16th century Italian composer, Palestrina's "Missa Brevis" on 1 Lent.

Many thanks to the Buildings & Grounds Committee under the leadership of Dot Miller, and the marvelous ways they care for our space.

Deep gratitude for our front desk volunteers, for their wonderful hospitality and faithfulness:
Nancy Godfrey, Jane Vickers, Mittie Fox, Bob Tick, Holly Sawyer, Micki Brown, Sug Patton, Pat Pendelton, Beverly Pounds, and Joe Staiano.

Special thanks to the Altar Guild Spring Cleaning crew: Elizabeth Nadal, Larre Holladay, Louise Geddes, Betsy Robinson, Nancy Yates, Linda Harris, and Kinsey Harper; and for the Stripping of the Palms: Louise Geddes, Glee Lamb, Kathi Rhodes, Sally Hansen, Betsy Robinson, and Libba Wight.

Thanks to the Tuff Family for Wednesday Night Supper snacks and to all those that help clean up the Art Room and games.

Much gratitude to Abby Copelin for helping organize the 2nd Floor of The Pritchett Children's Center.

Campus Clean-Up Day

Join us armed with your favorite gardening equipment and skills and help us do a little spring cleaning around the courtyard. We want things looking good for Palm Sunday and Easter!

Have You Ever Considered Weeding or Pruning? Join the All Saints' Garden Committee and Friends for freshening up the All Saints' garden spaces. Parishioner and Atlanta's foremost authority on landscape Ed Daugherty will join us to talk about the plants we grow on our campus. More advanced gardeners: Bring Hellebores, ferns, hosta, Vinca Minor, and Dwarf Mondo grass from your yards. Bring a trowel, clippers, and work gloves if you have them. No experience necessary! Doughnuts and coffee, lemonade and sandwiches provided!

Saturday, April 1

8:00 a.m.–1:00 p.m.,
in the Kennedy Courtyard

Special Guest Teacher:
Ed Daugherty at 10:00 a.m.

To sign up for or more information contact Maurice Reddick at 404-267-4290 or mreddick@allsaintsatlanta.org.

If you can't join us on April 1 but want to garden another time, Ellen Hayes at ehayes@allsaintsatlanta.org or 404-267-4275.

Novel Theology

The Nightingale,
by Kristin Hannah

Join us as we discuss a novel of historical fiction about two sisters, Isabelle and Vianne, both, each in her own way, coming of age in France on the eve of World War II. Their experiences during the German occupation of France include themes of survival, heroism, injustice, love and a kind of faith. The story was inspired by a Belgian woman named Andree de Jongh who helped downed Allied pilots to escape the Nazis.

Wednesday, April 19

7:00–8:00 p.m. in P307

For more information visit <http://allsaintsatlanta.org/formation/adult-formation/ongoing/novel-theology> or contact Amelia Tuttle at amelia.tuttle9@gmail.com.

Come, Live, and Pray in the World of Passion Week: continued from page 1

Pastor Mary by her congregation, The Rev. Mary Wetzel has served as vicar of The Church of the Common Ground, a church on the streets of Atlanta and a ministry of the Episcopal Diocese of Atlanta, since 2010.

Music: Jamie Clements, tenor soloist; Raymond Chenault, organ.

Wednesday, April 12

JOHNATHAN DAVIS,
Director of Covenant Community.

Johnathan Davis, a native of Atlanta, has approximately 15 years of experience working in social service, education and state-level government. He contributed in varying and escalating leadership capacities to international, national, state, and community human service and educational initiatives; including leadership and oversight, policy development and regulation, program evaluation and consultation, and constituent and stakeholder engagement. He is currently Executive Director of Covenant Community, Inc., a residential life stabilization program for men who are experiencing homelessness and challenges with alcohol and or substance abuse. His goal is to establish national awareness and support regarding his "Recovery First" philosophy. Music: Holly McCarren, mezzo-soprano; Raymond Chenault, organ.

Join us for lunch following each service, in Ellis Hall or the Kennedy Courtyard, weather permitting. $7.

For more information or to RSVP contact Lauri Begley at 404-267-4273 or lbegley@allsaintsatlanta.org.

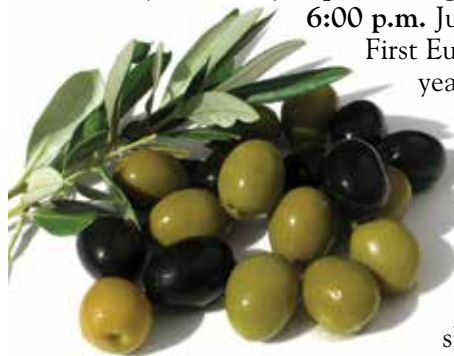

Holy Wednesday Liturgy for Children and Families, April 14, 5:00 p.m. This service leads us through the events of Holy Week as we mark Christ's journey to the cross while the children and their families strip the chapel altar.

The Triduum

The Triduum is the three-day period of the Passion: Thursday night through Resurrection Sunday. The liturgies all lead one to the next, and the truth of the gospel is embedded in the flow. This year consider participating in the full observance of the Triduum, of the journey of Life to Death to New Life in our Savior Jesus Christ.

Maundy Thursday, April 13. Agape meal, Holy Eucharist, 6:00 p.m. Just as the Last Supper (and First Eucharist) happened 2000 years ago, you are invited to a simple Mediterranean-style agape supper with the Saints, culminating in the Eucharist. Soup will be provided. Bring your favorite breads, cheeses and olives to share. If you choose, take part in the profoundly strange and holy ministry of foot-washing, which is how Jesus chose not to just tell us but to show us the new Commandment to Love One Another. There is no cost for the Agape Supper, but do bring bread, olives, and cheese to share. We will need to know how many to expect; kindly RSVP at the Parish Life table on Sundays, online at allsaintsatlanta.org/agape-supper, or contact Lauri Begley at 404-267-4273 or lbegley@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The Stripping of the Altar follows, a stark reminder of the reality of darkness and sin and loss in our lives, with beautiful unaccompanied music (sung from the chapel) by the All Saints' Adult Choir. 7:30 p.m., in the church.

Good Friday Liturgy, April 14. Noon day worship music features All Saints' Adult Choir soprano soloist Jessica Lane and organ music, and All Saints' Adult Choir soprano soloist Greer Lyle and organ music at the 7:30 p.m. service.

Holy Saturday, April 15, 8:30 a.m. Holy Saturday Liturgy will be held in the church.

The Feast of the Resurrection. Easter, Sunday, April 16.

We will be celebrating the resurrection throughout the day, beginning with the lighting of the Paschal candle at sunrise for The Great Vigil of Easter and Festal Holy Eucharist. The morning will be filled with beautiful flowers and music, with Jamie Clements as cantor at the Vigil. The 9:00 and 11:15 a.m. services will feature music for brass, organ, timpani and choir, including the world premiere of a new choral work by American composer, Daniel Gawthrop, commissioned by All Saints' parishioner, Frank Thomas, Jr.

The Flowering of the Great Cross has become a lovely tradition here at All Saints'. Don't forget to clip a few spring blooms from your garden (or swing by the grocery store) and bring them to church with you to help adorn the cross on our lawn on Easter morning.

We promise the joy and beauty of Easter will be deeper and richer for going on this Holy Week journey. ✝

Holy Week and Easter Worship Services
See the schedule on page 1

To ensure a more worshipful experience for all, doors for the 9:00 a.m. Easter service will open at 8:45 a.m.; doors for the 11:15 a.m. service will open at 10:45 a.m. Childcare will be available during the 9:00 and 11:15 a.m. worship services only.

The church office will be closed Monday and Tuesday, April 17-18. In the case of a pastoral emergency, call our main number at 404-881-0835 to reach the priest on call.

Vestry Notes

From the meeting on February 27, 2017

Charlie Ogburn reported that the parish is financially sound. We continue to pay down the Buy the Block loan. The 2017 budget was approved by the vestry in December 2016, since then, the Finance Committee has made changes based upon new information and the revised budget was presented for approval. The vestry approved the amended budget.

The vestry accepted and approved the Finance Committee's recommendation that the remaining capital campaign work on the arcade, the bell tower louvers, and the transom glass and frame in the narthex be paid for with remaining capital campaign funds. The Memorials and Gifts Committee is providing the funds to put in a Quiet Garden adjacent to the entrance of The Pritchett Children's Center.

Ken Stewart, Charlie Ogburn, Katrina Newton, Erin Miller, Robbert Waddell, Elizabeth Klump, Annette Sullivan, Mike Nadal, Alvin Moore will meet on March 29 as the Nominating Committee for the next slate of vestry members.

The Search Committee is interviewing candidates and may have a final list for the vestry by early April.

The meeting was then adjourned following a time of prayer.

All vestry meetings are open and meet at 4:30 p.m. in P305/306 of the Parish House with dates announced in The All Saints' Monthly.

Let Us Help You Plan While You Can

For more than a century, All Saints' has stood on a foundation of faith, formation, community leadership and generosity. We encourage in one another the wise use of our resources and extend invitations to grow in faith.

Join us for "mini seminars" on important decisions each of us must face. Why not do some planning today? Topics we will cover will include:

- How to Plan Your Funeral, led by The Rev. Martha Sterne
- Living Space for the Third Phase of Life, with Dr. James Wells
- Financial Planning for Retirement, with Bert Clark, Estate Strategies Group
- How to Make a Planned Gift, with Woody Vaughan

*Clockwise, from upper far left:
The Rev. Martha Sterne,
Dr. James Wells, Bert Clark, and Woody Vaughan.*

Plan While You Can is presented by The All Saints' Cornerstone Society.

Sunday, April 2 ✚ 10:20–11:05 a.m. in Ellis Hall
