If you haven’t registered for our annual parish retreat at Kanuga yet, it’s not too late, but spaces are going fast. If you have never been to Kanuga, please make plans to join us this year. It’s an experience like no other, and one you’ll cherish for a life time.

Kanuga is much more than just a beautiful place; it’s a sanctuary for your spirit. Our parish weekends are full of fellowship, events and activities that you are welcome to participate in or not. If your preference is for the solitude of your cabin porch enjoying this sanctuary, then so be it. If you are inclined to hike, explore, deepen your spiritual connections, or get to know more Saints’, there will be ample opportunity for each and all.

We’ll welcome adult program leader, The Rev. Heidi Haverkamp, who will be helping us in our quest to reconnect with the Holy Spirit. Most recently, Heidi served at St. Chrysostom’s (since June 2016). Before that, she served as Vicar and then Rector of the Episcopal Church of St. Benedict, Bolingbrook. She is a Benedictine oblate at Holy Wisdom Monastery in Wisconsin. Heidi received her M.Div. from The University of Chicago Divinity School in 2006 and completed a certificate in Anglican studies from Seabury-Western a year later.

Saturday activities include many of the Kanuga traditions: tennis round robin, kickball tourney, scavenger hunt, trip to the Carl Sandburg home; but this year we’re adding a few more offerings into the mix. Fourth through sixth graders will experience Kanuga’s Outdoor School on Saturday morning by participating in a bog study, visiting the mountain bog and experiencing the wetlands therein. A Sustainable Future experience follows where the children will learn how Kanuga’s solar hot water system, organic garden and ongoing conservation initiatives impact the science of sustainability.

Our Youth will take part in an exploration and hike through the DuPont State Forest. A private bus ride will transport them to and from the state park with The Rev. Tim Black and Alvin Moore. Eucharist at the mountain top will be a highlight of this experience! After lunch adults are invited to join Kanuga’s Outdoor Education School for a Mountain Ecology program which includes a hike.

Saturday night will be a full-on fellowship night. Following dinner we’ll try something new, first gathering for desserts and music at a mix and mingle with the new rector in the Fireplace Lounge. Then we’ll continue to connect with each other at progressive cabin parties where you’ll find our clergy meeting and greeting any and all who come by.

It’s truly a weekend that will fill you with grace and God and love. Connect with new friends, strengthen connections to long-time friends, and discover how God brings us all together in nature and fellowship. This weekend will be a great opportunity to get to know Simon, Monica and their children. Don’t miss Kanuga! If you are new to All Saints’ or visiting, this is a great way to get to know us better!

Friday through Sunday, September 29–October 1
Kanuga Conference Center, Hendersonville, North Carolina

It’s not too late, register now! Payment plans can be arranged if cost is an issue. Let us know!

All Saints’ Got Talent Show
Friday, September 29 at the Waterfront Pavilion

Get your act together for our talent show tradition! All acts are welcome: musicians, magicians, actors and wanna-be actors – show off your stuff in the spirit of fun and silliness. We need to know how to prepare – sign up at the Parish Life table on Sunday mornings, email Debbie and Jowell, or email Lauri Begley at lbegley@allsaintsatlanta.org.

For more information, contact 2017 Kanuga co-chairs Debbie Wilson and Jowell Thome at 1962dwilson@gmail.com.

Grace Notes
We give thanks for our Wedding Guild, led by Lynne Holley, for assisting us through a busy wedding season.
On behalf of the clients of Midtown Assistance Center (MAC), Dorothy Chandler, Executive Director, and Ciara Rowley, Partnerships Director, we give grateful thanks for All Saints’ support. From April through June, 2017, we have contributed 266 volunteer hours from parishioners and ATLServe, 660 pounds of food from our Lenten Food Drive, over 750 sandwiches made at Saint’s & Service and ATLServe, and over $5,000 in monetary donations. The work you do enables MAC to provide emergency rent and utility assistance, MARTA cards, and grocery assistance to our neighbors in need, helping to prevent homelessness for Atlantans who fall behind after a temporary loss of income or an unexpected expense. Thank you, for helping All Saints’ continue to support this important ministry.
Thank you Jen Waters and Lanara Trott for watering the All Saints’ gardens!

Left: Some of our young ladies enjoy a little Sunday morning fellowship.
Right: When a transformer blew out one Sunday morning and left us in the dark, Choirmaster Ray Chenault and crew jumped into action, and kept the service going by candlelight and cell phone light.

All Saints’ Episcopal Church
Coming Up

Make New Friends with Foyer Groups
Get to know fellow parishioners through informal, small dinner group gatherings at one another’s homes. Foyer groups are a great mix of people: single, married, and of varied status and age. It’s a perfect, low key way to make connections.

Sign up Sunday mornings throughout August at the Parish Life table
For more information, call Barbara Blender at 404-520-2479 or bblender@bellsouth.net.

Wednesday Morning Discussion Group Begins The First Love Story: Adam, Eve, and Us
At a time of discord and fear over the strength of our social fabric, best-selling author Bruce Feiler attempts to release civilization’s first couple from the box they’ve been trapped in for generations into a new way of being. The Rev. Dr. Jim Donald will discuss the book and see how we can once more be role models for unity, reconciliation and love. Join us Wednesday mornings for lively discussion under the mentorship of the Rev. Dr. Jim Donald.

Wednesdays, beginning August 2
10:00–11:30 a.m. in P307
For more information, email The Rev. Jim Donald at jasdonald@aol.com.

Help Take Refugee Kids to Threads
It’s your last chance before school starts to take refugee kids to Threads to get the right way, with your head and heart turned toward God! You’ll get a special bag tag to remind you that you are affirmed in your vocation and service! Students, school teachers, librarians, administrators, and all who work hard to teach and support education are invited to join us to start the school year affirmed in your vocation and service!

Sunday, August 6
11:10 a.m. in the Kennedy Courtyard and Ellis Hall
$10 for adults and $5 for children ages 3–12. RSVP online at allsaintsatlanta.org/parishpicnic.
For more information, contact Lauri Begley at 404-267-4273 or lbegley@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Break With The Men Of Covenant Community
On Monday nights, All Saints’ parishioners provide dinner for the residents of Covenant Community. This 20-year-plus tradition means so much to the men of this residential drug-treatment facility. Bring dinner yourself, with your family, with friends or co-workers. It’s a great way to say thank you!
Mondays, August 7, 14
To volunteer or for information, contact Barbara Blender at 404-520-2479 or bblender@bellsouth.net.

Help with Refugees’ Swimming Buddies
Help provide transportation and supervision for our last Swimming Buddies of the summer. Thanks so much to Brandon and Tom Tully for hosting this event in Cross Creek.
Saturday, August 12
10:30 a.m.–1:00 p.m., location TBD
Times include transportation, and lunch will be provided.
For more information, contact Louisa Merchant at 404-267-4274 or louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Blessing of the Back Packs
Bring your backpack to church and receive a blessing to start the year the right way, with your head and heart turned toward God! You’ll get a special bag tag to remind you that you are holy, unique and blessed all year long.

Students, school teachers, librarians, administrators, and all who work hard to teach and support education are invited to join us to start the school year affirmed in your vocation and service!
Sunday, August 13
10:00 a.m. worship in the church
For more information, contact Kathy Roberts at 404-267-4272 or kroberts@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Threads’ 14th Birthday Celebration
Celebrate this amazing ministry’s 14th year! Each year about 30,000 items of clothing and 10,000 pair of socks and underwear are made available to Threads shoppers, enabling Threads to provide a pair of new shoes, a toiletry kit, a book and sometimes a Halloween costume to children in need. Threads relies on donations of gently used baby and children’s clothing and on our volunteers who keep the shop running smoothly and help families shop, offering choices, a beautiful thing to give a child who feels they have so little.
Sunday, August 13
11:10 a.m. in the Kennedy Courtyard
Bring Threads a “birthday gift” (new socks or underwear) to pass on to a child in need.
For more information about Threads contact Lori Guarisco at threads@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Children’s Church Orientation
Parents are invited to join us for Holy Eucharist in Children’s Church. If you’ve never been to one of our services come and stay for a brief orientation to Children’s Church and formation. Come on up and see how we roll!
Sunday, August 20
9:00–10:00 a.m., in the chapel of The Pritchett Children’s Center
(2nd floor)
Please note: there will be no formation classes on August 20.
For more information, contact Kathy Roberts at 404-267-4272 or kroberts@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Committees have been busy wrapping up some important projects this summer. Our beautiful Penny Smith Garden has been planted at the entrance to The Pritchett Children’s Center replacing what we sometimes referred to as “the desert”. What a great addition to our landscape!

Behind the scenes, we have installed a new permanent spiral staircase in the Bell Tower which provides safer access to our steeple, built in 1906. This will aid construction crews over the next six months in the repair and refinishing of our Bell Tower louvers. Some of you may remember in 1982 the steeple caught fire and some restoration had to be done at that time. Once the louver repair is done, we will be adding additional lighting in the tower to showcase our windows there and improve the view of the church at night.

Above: The louvers in the Bell Tower will be repaired over the coming six months.

A couple of weeks ago, our stained glass windows in the narthex and the transom windows over the narthex doors that open to West Peachtree, were removed and sent to New Jersey for restoration. We are hoping to kick off Advent with welcoming them back home!

Left: The Choir Suite is in the process of getting a fresh coat of paint, new carpet and restrooms.
Not sexy but essential, in the Parish House, we will be installing new kitchen appliances to include a new range, convection oven and dishwasher. And wait there is more! A new freezer was installed earlier this summer. Our choir will soon be enjoying a fresh space with new restrooms, carpet and paint. Our Horseshoe Room will soon have new carpet. We are exploring options for a new display system for the walls of the church to better display our artwork. New lighting is coming along the arcade and in the cemetery. The end of our long To Do list for summer and fall 2017 is in sight! Thanks be to God! Alleluia! Alleluia!

The Return of Food & Fellowship!

Take the scramble out of your Sunday morning, and let us scramble up the eggs, fry the bacon, boil up the grits, and bake the biscuits for you. We also have an assortment of cereals, milk, juice and of course, coffee.

Hot Sunday Breakfast begins August 20 8:00–9:00 a.m. in Ellis Hall
$5 keeps your stomach quiet during church.

Celebrate hump day with great food and great company! Whether you are checking out All Saints’ for the first time or you are a long-time member, join us for food, wine and fellowship. Our very own chef and restauranteur Deborah Van Trece prepares a fabulous dinner each week.

Wednesday Night Suppers begin August 23 5:00–7:00 p.m. in Ellis Hall
Eucharist around the dinner tables 5:55 p.m. each week
Supper is $10/adult, $5/university student, and $4/child, ages 4–12. Enjoy a glass of wine or beer for a minimal donation. Reserve your seat online at allsaintsatlanta.org, at the Parish Life table on Sunday mornings, or contact Lauri Begley at 404-267-4273 or lbegley@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Tuesday, September 13
Samaritan Readers
Samaritan Readers seeks to understand the question “Who is my neighbor?” through the exploration of memoir and fiction. This fall, we will focus on the question, “Who is Atlanta?” looking deeply at concerns surrounding environment, affordable housing, racial equality, and faith diversity. We meet on the second Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m. during All Saints’ program year.

Our September book is by Anthony Marra, which has theories. This training program from The Episcopal Church for child sexual abuse awareness provides the information needed to protect the children we know and care for in their personal lives and in our ministries.

Egg-Onomic Breakfast Series Returns with a Great Fall Line-Up

All Saints’ monthly breakfast series resumes in September with an outstanding start to this fall. We’ll be welcoming parishioner Harris Lowe with Chief Investment Strategist, Wes Moss. Wes, author of several books, is the host of Money Matters, the country’s longest running live call-in investment and personal finance radio show (News 95-5FM and AM 750 WSB). Wes holds a degree in economics for UNC, Chapel Hill and has held several positions as an Investment Advisory Representative. He will be speaking on his latest book, You Can Retire Sooner Than You Think: The 5 Money Secrets of the Happiest Retirees. Join us for some words of wisdom and a delicious hot breakfast.

Begins Tuesday, September 12  7:30 a.m. full breakfast in Ellis Hall  7:40–8:30 a.m. presentation
A full, hot buffet breakfast will be served. All are invited to attend Holy Eucharist at 8:30 a.m. in the chapel.
Cost is $5. Proceeds go to the Men of Hope at Covenant Community.
We expect this to be a well-attended breakfast event and encourage you to RSVP early to Lauri Begley at 404–267–4273 or lbegley@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The deadline for the September issue is Tuesday, August 8. Please make your submission via our website, at allsaintsatlanta.org/news-and-events/announcements/. Thank you!
