

ASSOCIATE RECTOR FOR EVANGELISM AND CHILDREN AND YOUTH FORMATION ALL SAINTS' EPISCOPAL CHURCH, ATLANTA

POSITION DESCRIPTION AND CONTEXT

All Saints' Episcopal Church is looking to call a highly motivated and talented priest to lead, in equal measure, Evangelism, and Children and Youth ministries in a large, 3,000 member church in the heart of Atlanta. The Associate Rector for Evangelism and Children and Youth Formation will have oversight over all Evangelism, and Children and Youth Formation ministries, and will supervise a team of four staff working in those respective ministry areas: the Children's Minister, the Youth Minister, the Communications Director, and the Digital Missioner. The Associate Rector for Evangelism and Children and Youth Formation will be a member of the supervisory staff, reporting directly to the Rector. They will be highly motivated and capable of bringing their own sense of vision and passion to the ministry of the church. They will offer energy and empathy to their work, and will find joy in drawing out and supporting the ministry of others from a wide diversity of backgrounds. They will be comfortable working within a large staff team and will enjoy connecting with a diverse and vibrant parish community. The Associate Rector for Evangelism and Children and Youth Formation will also be a naturally gifted networker, capable of building connections between the church and surrounding residents, businesses, and other organizations including a large influx of millennials moving into the church's immediate location in the city. Successful candidates will be persons who are ready for a challenge, excited to stretch the boundaries of mission and ministry in a rapidly changing metropolitan landscape, and be able to articulate hope for the future church as they see it lived out at All Saints' and beyond. All Saints' offers a competitive compensation package.

A full job description is available online at: <https://allsaintsatlanta.org/who-we-are/jobs/> or from Pat Kiley, Rector's Assistant, at: patkiley@allsaintsatlanta.org

Find out more about All Saints' via our website here: <https://allsaintsatlanta.org> and on Facebook here: <https://www.facebook.com/AllSaintsATL/>

(Application Instructions on the next page)

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

APPLICATION CLOSING DATE: March 31st 2018

SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS: Please submit the following materials to Pat Kiley, Rector's Assistant, at: patkiley@allsaintsatlanta.org

- Cover Letter
 - OTM Portfolio
 - Resume
 - Answers to the following questions:
1. Describe an example of how you have used your skills as a networker/relationship-builder successfully in your ministry as a priest.
 2. How might a large, well-established urban church like All Saints' adapt to meet the needs of its largely unchurched neighbors?
 3. How would you lead a comprehensive review of children's and youth ministry in a complex, multi-generational parish like ours?
 4. How would this position challenge you?

(Please limit answers to approximately 200 words each)