

the All Saints' Monthly

News and Announcements from All Saints' Episcopal Church  Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Saints,

Happy Easter! April is the month when we celebrate the life we share as a church at our Annual Parish Meeting. As I look forward to that, I am particularly thankful for the leadership of our vestry, especially for David Aldridge, Beth Blalock, E. J. Diedrich, Virginia Harrison, Kevin Lyman, and Leighton Stradman, who are ending their term of service. We are blessed at All Saints' to have a vibrant, healthy, and fully engaged community of vestry members whose wisdom, insight, and experience of our parish and of Atlanta I rely on greatly as rector. I do hope that you will be able to be part of our annual meeting as we report on and celebrate all that we achieved in 2017, and set the scene for our work until next April. Thank you for all that you offer in service to Christ in this church.

Peace,

I Will Sing with the Spirit

I wonder if you are familiar with the chorister's prayer? It goes, 'Bless O Lord, us thy servants, who minister in thy temple. Grant that what we sing with our lips we may believe in our hearts, and that what we believe in our hearts we may show forth in our lives, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen'. Its origins go back to the 4th century and the fourth ecumenical council of Carthage. My own origins with the prayer don't go back quite as far. As a boy chorister, my parish choir's association with the Royal School of Church Music meant that it was one of those prayers that I must have said hundreds of times through the course of my years of singing with them. As a child I was taught that I should sing with spirit and with mind; singing was a heart and head thing, and I loved every moment of it.

You may have similar feelings or experiences of singing in your own life. We sing for joy. We sing to express our hopes, and our deep sadness. We sing because singing is one of our most ancient expressions of what it means to be the church. Later this month, we will begin our discernment season for the future of music-making in our church, in deep appreciation for all that has passed, and with open hearts and minds for all that lies ahead. On Saturday April 14th, Dent Davidson, of St. James Cathedral and the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago, will join us for a half-day workshop aimed at helping us make a beginning of that discernment work. The workshop will run from 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m., with a break for lunch, compliments of All Saints'. Everyone is welcome to attend, and I do hope that you will be able to be part of that morning as we sing, and learn, and imagine together as we move toward opening the search process for new music leadership at All Saints'.

Blessings to all this Eastertide,

Novel Theology

Go Tell It on the Mountain,

by James Baldwin

Go Tell It on the Mountain chronicles a fourteen-year-old boy's discovery of the terms of his identity as the stepson of the minister of a Pentecostal storefront church in Harlem. Baldwin's rendering of his protagonist's spiritual, sexual and moral struggle towards self-invention opened new possibilities in the American language and in the way Americans understood themselves. Join this group as they delve into the heart of this story, discussing three intertwining conflicts:

a clash between father and son, a coming-of-age struggle, and a religious crisis. Facilitator: Kelly Kautt

Vestry Notes

From the meeting on February 26, 2018

Simon opened the meeting with a prayer. Our strategic planning for the next three years is beginning. Minutes of the January meeting and the Consent agenda were approved by the vestry. Simon introduced and the vestry approved forming an HR committee under the authority of the vestry to address HR issues arising within the parish. Leighton Stradtman recommended that vestry members participate in events at Canterbury Court. Sheldon Taylor arranged a meeting with All Saints' representatives and the broker for the owners of the property at West Peachtree Street and Ponce de Leon Avenue for informational purposes. Charlie Ogburn reported that the Parish is financially sound. David Aldridge presented our new arrangement with Bright Horizons which was approved by the vestry. A task force has been created to assess how the income from our Endowment can enrich our parish for years to come. Simon applauded the Stewardship Committee and all the volunteers for their work on our record canvass. Lauri Begley announced plans for our annual retreat at Kanuga in October. The meeting was adjourned following a short time of prayer.

All vestry meetings are open and meet at 4:30 p.m. in P305/306 of the Parish House with dates announced in The All Saints' Monthly.

Alzheimer's and Dementia: Being with the Ones We Love

Welcome Carlen Maddux, author of A Path Revealed: How Hope, Love, and Joy Found Us Deep in a Maze Called Alzheimer's. Maddux will share his family's story of how they were sustained through their 17-year crisis with Alzheimer's.

His wife Martha, a civic activist and mother of three, was diagnosed in 1997 at age 50. Carlen will discuss the stresses he and his family faced as they learned to cope with the volatile symptoms, will offer tips on what you as a caregiver can do to help care for yourself while caring for your loved one, and what you as a church or other group, or as a friend, can do to help a family faced with dementia or Alzheimer's. "Alzheimer's is not the focus of our family's story; it's the context. The focus of our story is the path that emerged during our darkest hours, a path that we neither planned nor foresaw."

Welcome All Welcomers!

*"Welcome, happy morning!
Age to age shall say..."*,
as we reflect on the celebration of Easter,
the new birth of spring
and the hope of our faith;
what a perfect time
to WELCOME...not only a happy morning but also friends, family, neighbors and all of the sorts of All Saints'!

Many of us participated in the Invite, Welcome, Connect seminar, and now it is time to move our ideas into actions (if you were not there, we would love your input and participation). We have compiled the list and have identified a few priorities but we cannot do this alone. We are looking for anyone and everyone who would like to help...WELCOME.

Your commitment can be as much or a little as you like. Please join us to learn about what we are planning, to offer your input, and to help make All Saints' an even more wonderful and inclusive community.
