

the All Saints' Monthly

News and Announcements from All Saints' Episcopal Church

Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Saints,

I wonder what the summer has in store for you? I do hope that whatever else may be on your radar, that there will be at least some time for unproductive, schedule-free fun. If your working and social life is anything like mine, the prospect of some unplugged and unstructured days might feel like a God-send; and I do mean that literally. The Bible calls it sabbath, and I have found the practice of sabbath-taking to be vital for my sustenance in ordained ministry. I love that while on sabbath the only important decisions I have to make are about the flavor of ice cream I am about to eat, or whether or not I should take another dip in the ocean. I pray that your summer days will be rich with the thrilling and the exotic, and also that in the midst of it all, you will be still and know the God who loves you.

Peace,

A Blessing of Music

This summer, an era like none other in the history of music-making at All Saints' comes to its sad yet wondrous conclusion. Sunday, June 10 will remain with us in our memories as many things: a time of teary-eyed farewells and fondly told stories of years gone by; a great, big, beautiful All Saints' send-off for two beloved members of our staff and church family; yet what we will remember most of all is the glory of the music that day.

Predictably and wonderfully, Ray and Beth Chenault end forty-three years of unswerving dedication and faithfulness here at All Saints', quite literally, on a high note. The sight of our sanctuary packed to the rafters with singers from each and every era of their tenure here will be a memory of not only of great music but of great love and loyalty, and we are so much the richer for all that music-making on this block has given to others.

Many of you will have your favorite Ray and Beth moment, and although my own journey with them has been far shorter than most at All Saints', my personal highlight was when Ray led the choir singing Tallis's If Ye Love Me, as an Introit at my Renewal of Ministry service as your new rector. The choir had just begun, and at that moment, an usher intimated to me that the bishop had a question. I swiftly chose the better path and said to the usher, "I'm sure the bishop will find an answer", and made my way into the church, closed my eyes and let myself be enveloped with our choir's beautiful music.

Turned out the bishop did just fine that night without knowing the answer to his question, and you and I are going to do just fine not knowing, as yet, the answer to our own question that the latter months of this year raise: who next? We will do just fine because we are a strong, vibrant and incredibly talented parish. We will also be served well by our existing stellar staff as well as new and highly capable interim music leaders. Yet our confidence is grounded in these coming months of discovery and discernment trusting that this is God's work, and that we step into the future believing that we never walk alone; and neither do Ray and Beth. May God's blessing go with them and remain with us as we give thanks for the past, and anticipate all that is to come with excitement and song. ✚

Top: All Saints' Primetimers enjoyed tea, biscuits and conversation with The Rev. Dr. Simon Mainwaring, and had the opportunity to ask him some tough questions about our plans for the future. Above left: Owen Dougherty, Covenant Community Board Member and Deputy Executive Director for the Georgia Council on Substance Abuse and Johnathan Davis, Director of Covenant Community joined The Rev. Dr. Simon Mainwaring for a Rector's Forum on mental health and its relation to spirituality. Right: We celebrated Pentecost Sunday waving streamers overhead like flames, hearing the Gospel read in many languages, and a beautiful dove with tongues of fire.

Grace Notes

Thank you to Melanie Hardin, Laura Crotty, Katrina Newton and Leila Konas for serving as such lovely hostesses and welcomers at our Prime Timers Tea and Conversation with Simon.

Thank you to Matt Collins of Arts Theology for hosting Refugee Ministries families for their trip to the Delta Museum. Thanks to Marti Breen, Jeff Klein and Tim Frilingos for helping make the trip possible.

Vestry Notes

From the meeting on April 18, 2018

Simon opened the meeting with a prayer, and offered gifts and gratitude to retiring vestry members. Dot Miller and David Aldridge agreed to continue with their service as committee chairs for Buildings and Grounds and Finance, respectively. The vestry elected the following officers for the coming year: John Frazer, Senior Warden; Dot Miller, Junior Warden; Todd Silliman, Clerk; and Charlie Ogburn, Treasurer. The following parishioners were elected to represent the parish at Diocesan Council in November: Beth Frilingos, Jerry Byrd, Gail Rogers, Rainey Woodward and Luke Barton. Des Dorsey, Mary Brennan, Louise Geddes, Keith Hollingsworth and Amy Gaynor will serve as alternates. The minutes for the March meeting and the date of the next vestry meeting (May 21) were unanimously approved by the vestry. Simon offered updates on transitions in process. The associate rector search has closed and the Music Director search begins May 1. The strategic planning survey closed on April 15; we received 400 replies. Leighton updated the vestry on the Midtown Alliance appeal of the billboard on the I-75/85 connector. Charlie Ogburn reported that the parish is financially sound. David Aldridge reported that the Endowment Task Force is exploring the profile of our endowment. Nancy Dodson reported that the annual audit will begin in June. Dot Miller reported that the chapel restrooms and the men's restroom in Egleston Hall are scheduled for renovation this summer. Plans for renovation of the flower sacristy, the Horseshoe Room, the bell tower louvers and the new Welcome desk in the narthex/bell tower area are in progress. Simon discussed the overall strategic planning process. The meeting adjourned and the vestry convened in the chapel for Eucharist and New Vestry Installation.

Youth Pilgrimage: Eye-opening Experiences

Pilgrimage journeys provide our teenagers with an opportunity to deepen their relationship with God in Christ, strengthen their ties to the church community, and forge stronger bonds with their peers. This intentional, spiritual time of holy travel provides experiences that help one learn a new way to find God in the world. On Friday, June 8, our pilgrims and their leaders leave for Ireland to explore the origins of celtic spirituality and visit sites that have retained spiritual resonance since pre-history. Follow their blog, and experience this journey with them.

Project Post Card:
Stay Connected with Us
Through the Summer!

Send us a post card from wherever you go this summer and have your greetings read to the parish during the Sunday 10:00 a.m. worship service announcements. At the end of the summer, we'll see how many we received and where all our Saints went! Pick up an All Saints' card in the narthex or at the Parish Life table; on the back you'll find our address and ways to keep in touch with us online. Take it with you on your travels, then leave it with someone you visit or meet, and encourage them connect with us too.
