Saints on the Move

Join us to move and be moved, whether it’s in learning about music with Bob Edge, discussing difficult issues like the housing crisis in our Faith in the City series and race with The MICAH Project, or in making time for stillness during the our Quiet Night (page 5).

Faith in the City Series
Join us for the first session in our Faith in the City series, led by Simon Mainwaring and Natosha Reid Rice, to deepen understanding of issues, widen appreciation of differing perspectives, and inspire lives of faithfulness in the public square. Each Sunday session of the series will be followed by an in-depth discussion on the following Wednesday night. Subsequent forums are currently scheduled for March 15, May 24, and June 21.

Forum: Sunday, February 2
10:20–11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall, 1st Floor, Parish House

Discussion: Wednesday, February 5
6:30–8:00 p.m., Ross Room, 3rd Floor, Parish House

Learn more at allsaintsatlanta.org/faith-in-the-city.
For more information, contact The Rev. Dr. Simon Mainwaring at smainwaring@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The MICAH Project: Continuing the Conversation
The MICAH (our Mission Is Conversation And Healing) Project will help us continue our faithful and courageous conversation about race in our lives, our region, and in the history of the church. During the first session, Bob Miller will present the history of the 1906 Atlanta massacre. In the subsequent sessions, we will experience a two-part, professional reading of the historic conversation that took place after the massacre between The Rev. Carey Wilmer, rector of St. Luke’s Episcopal Church at the time, and W.E.B. DuBois, the famous scholar and founder of the NAACP.

Sundays, February 16, 23, and March 1
10:20–11:05 a.m., Ellis Hall, 1st Floor, Parish House

For more information, contact Sarah Hill at hill.sarah@gmail.com.

Great Performers of Classical Music with Bob Edge
Bob Edge will lead a five-week series of music appreciation classes to help both music lovers and novices hone their listening skills and enjoy great music. This year’s classes will focus on living performers such as Joshua Bell, Lang Lang, Renee Fleming, YoYo Ma, and Benjamin Grosvenor.

Sundays, February 2 through March 1
10:20–11:05 a.m., Ross Room, 3rd Floor, Parish House
For more information, contact The Rev. Dr. Andy Barnett at abarnett@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Young Adult Series: In Faith
Join fellow young adults exploring resources from our Christian tradition that can support us in our daily lives. Part fellowship, part formation, 100% fun as we grow in our faith!

Sundays, February 16
10:20–11:05 a.m., P202, 2nd Floor, Parish House
For more information, contact The Rev. Sarah Stewart at ssstewart@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Dear Saints,
At a wedding last year, I preached a homily that stated simply that the heart of marriage is much like the heart of God: it is love on the move. We know that God loves us, and that God’s love has the capacity to transform our lives because God made the first move, from heaven to earth, from the eternal to the finite. This month, the saints will be taking that maxim to heart and moving all over the place, as near as across the street offering Ashes to Go on Ash Wednesday, and as far away as Jerusalem, on the second Holy Land pilgrimage. Also consider joining the Tiffany windows ‘Talk and Tour’, or praying for our youth singers on their choir tour. God’s love on the move, all the time, never tiring. May you will feel that movement of God in your own heart these coming days.

Peace,

Vestry Notes

From the meeting on December 16, 2019

Charlie Henn offered a meditation reflecting on his father, and on aging past the age at which his father passed away. The vestry voted to offer a donation to the Absalom Jones Center for Racial Healing. Simon offered thanks for the service of vestry member Jenna Barone, who will be leaving Atlanta for New York City. The vestry approved the 2020 clergy housing resolution. Sarah Stewart reported on the strength in both numbers and depth of relationships in the revitalized Young Adults ministry. The 2020 proposed budget presented by the Finance Committee was reviewed and approved by the vestry. Lanier Parking has been engaged to offer parking on All Saints’ campus for Fox Theatre events as space is available as an additional revenue source. Senior Warden Todd Silliman reported that Tread Davis is heading a committee to monitor damage to campus buildings related to the ongoing construction at the Norfolk Southern site. Structural engineers have been engaged. At present, we are not aware of any imminent safety concerns. Monitors are being installed and investigations will be continued. The vestry approved the church disaster and security preparedness protocols as presented by Arjun Srinivasan.

All vestry meetings are open and meet at 4:30 p.m. in P305/306 of the Parish House with dates announced in The All Saints’ Monthly.
