An Easter People

I wonder if you have heard it? In Midtown perhaps, or in your part of town: the cheering and clapping and singing and whistling for those brave and beautiful souls in the medical profession who have strode toward the danger to keep the rest of us out of harm’s way. At 8:00 p.m. around the church it is called the ‘Midtown Cheer’, a daily serenade at the change of shift at Emory Midtown Hospital.

Each night, All Saints’ joins the throng, ringing our bells in honor of all who serve the needs of the sick at this time. Bell ringing has a remarkable place in the history of the wider church. For centuries, bells have called God’s people to prayer, they have sent urgent messages to the towns and villages where they were heard, or have rung in quick succession for farm workers to pause and recite the Lord’s Prayer. The bells in Westminster Abbey have rung for over 1,000 years, joining bells around the world that rang to celebrate the end of the Second World War.

We toll our bells at this time in our nation’s life to give sound to the spirit of solidarity which we have in our hearts for the community around us. This Easter season, we are inviting you to give form to that spirit by joining together as a church to reach out to the city of Atlanta in its hour of need. This month, we will share details of three efforts.

• First, our core ministries of Covenant Community, Threads, Refugee Ministries and the Midtown Assistance Center will be leading us into new ways of loving and supporting our neighbors whom they most know because of their existing powerful work in the life of metro-Atlanta.

• Second, following the inspiration of our women’s chapters at All Saints’, we will invite you to offer your support to Atlanta’s medical community wherever you live, and as a church we will have a special focus on our closest hospital at Emory Midtown.

• Third, members of your vestry have been reaching out to Atlanta organizations who are seeking to meet the needs of others and have asked them how we might support them in that important work.

We can be an Easter people for Atlanta. We won’t be able to offer all that is needed, by any stretch of the imagination, yet with some imagination we can offer what we can to this city that the risen Lord calls us to love. ✝

We will share more about this effort throughout this month of May, and invite you to look for details are they come out in our e-news and on the website. You can also contact Jill Gossett at any time for more information at jgossett@allsaintsatlanta.org.
When it became clear that we would need to close our campus to help slow the spread of the coronavirus, many saints jumped into action. We want to recognize and thank everyone for being flexible and adapting quickly to being the church online...

Not even a virus could keep Easter from coming! Thanks to Alvin Moore, the Palm Sunday cross and Easter flowered cross in front of the church sent a message of hope and resurrection into the city. And thanks to our parishioners, who adorned crosses at their homes and shared them with us on Easter morning.

You'll see some of your lovely crosses featured throughout this issue. Be sure to visit allsaintsepiscopalchurch.smugmug.com/2020/All-Saints-Flowered-Crosses/ to see them all.

Stories by the Saints
Have you ever thought about trying your hand at storytelling? Learn the basics of storytelling from our Refugee Ministries Director, Louisa Merchant (Atlanta Moth Slam winner). In just 4 weeks you’ll learn how to tell a 10-minute story of faith, meaning or change to share with fellow parishioners online and in person (neither are mandatory) when we return to in-person worship and group meetings.

Mondays, May 4, 11
11:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
(Note this event began March 23)
For more information or to join this group, email Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Basic Spanish Conversation for Beginners Lesson
Have you ever wanted to learn to speak Spanish but never had the time? Learn some basic Spanish phrases and conversational tips from our Refugee Ministries Director, Louisa Merchant, who holds an MA in Spanish and has taught in colleges and universities for 15 years. Learn some fun phrases, a little grammar, and some basic pronunciation. It’s a great stress-breaking way to spend some online time with other parishioners during these challenging days.

Wednesdays, May 6, 13
11:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
(Note this event began April 22)
For more information or to join this group, email Louisa Merchant at louisam@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Young Adult Formation: “In Faith”
We continue our Eastertide exploration of biblical stories of Jesus’ Resurrection.

Sunday, May 17
11:00–11:45 a.m., online
For more information or to join this group, email the Rev. Sarah Stewart at sstewart@allsaintsatlanta.org or Justin Averette at justin.averette@gmail.com.

Novel Theology: My Antonia by Willa Cather
Facilitator: Judy Fritz
One of Cather’s earliest novels, it is the story of Ántonia Shimerda, who arrives on the Nebraska frontier with her family. Her story is told through the eyes of Jim Burden, a neighbor who will befriend Ántonia, teach her English, and follow the remarkable story of her life. Working in the fields of the Great Plains, Ántonia forges the durable spirit that will carry her through the challenges she faces when she moves to the city. Only when she returns to the prairie does she recover her strength and regain a sense of purpose in life.

Wednesday, May 20
7:00–8:00 p.m., online
For more information or to join this discussion, contact Amelia Tuttle at amelia.tuttle9@gmail.com or visit allsaintsatlanta.org/novel-theology.

Jesus on the Front Page
Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Sundays in May
9:00–9:50 a.m., online
For more information or to join this group, email Ethel Ware Carter at ethelware@aol.com.

Coffee with Clergy
Following the online worship service, take a quick break to grab a cup of coffee and then join our clergy for (virtual) discussion and reflection time.

Sundays in May
11:00–11:45 a.m., online
For more information, email the Rev. Dr. Andy Barnett at abarnett@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Parenting with God
All parents of children and teenagers are invited to join in online community with us as we check-in with one another and learn together about parenting children during these anxious and uncertain times.

Sundays in May
4:00–5:00 p.m., online
For more information or to join this group, email Kathy Roberts at kroberts@allsaintsatlanta.org.

Eastertide Small Group
Join the Rev. Sarah Stewart, Christine Alger, and Joy Armstrong for a virtual small group exploring ways of leaning into Christian community that nourish our hope, resilience, and peace.

Tuesdays in May
11:00–11:45 a.m., online
For more information or to join this group, email the Rev. Sarah Stewart at sstewart@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The Hymn Project
During this time of social distancing, we've been posting a “Hymn of the Day” video on our Facebook and Vimeo pages with hymns from the requests we receive through The Hymn Project.

Senior Saints!

by The Rev. Zachary C. Nyein

Dear Saints,

As this most unusual program year draws to a close, we are especially mindful and proud of our graduating high school senior class of 2020. Although this time of transition is less than ideal, may you draw strength from the love we share in this place and carry it with you into the future, whatever it may hold. Please enjoy the photos and highlights from many of our seniors below, and join me in extending a warm and hearty congratulations to the graduating seniors in your life as well.

Zach

Andrew Stevens
Son of Bob and Holly Stevens
School: Westminster
Future Plans: University of Texas, majoring in film production
Activities: Cross-country, track, film club, piano, All Saints’ Youth Choir
Proudest Accomplishment: Winning state in cross-country
Favorite thing about All Saints’: The pilgrimage trip with our confirmation class (our year was to Ireland) was definitely my favorite thing I’ve done with All Saints’. Choir trips are a close second!
Where have you seen God’s presence in your journey? In the last year as I’ve completed my college applications and had to think a lot about moving on from high school and Atlanta, one of the most important things centering me was trusting that each SAT score and rejection letter and admissions letter, every piece of bad and good news, was all part of God’s plan.

Iain Chambless
Son of Dave and Lisa Chambless
School: Atlanta International School
Future Plans: Moving to Oregon for college
Activities: All Saints’ Youth Choir
Favorite thing about All Saints’: Joel (Smith) by a mile!

Natalie Rinck
Daughter of Jennifer and Todd Rinck
School: Atlanta Girls’ School
Future Plans: University of Georgia
Activities: At All Saints’ I have been a choir member and acolyte. Additionally, for the past year, I have been Ms. Kimmel’s assistant. At school, I played on the varsity soccer team, started a yoga club for middle

What’s giving you hope and excitement for the future right now? Being able to spend more time on the things that I’m most passionate about, in college and after

Noah Statton
Son of Amanda and Jeremy Statton
School: Grady
Future Plans: Georgia Tech, majoring in computer science, with a minor in Chinese!
Activities: Lifeguarding, Track, Robotics, Drone Team, Animal Shelter and Aquarium Volunteering
Favorite thing about All Saints’: My favorite thing about All Saints’ is definitely Rev Zack. He’s a nice guy and his sermons are always full of wisdom.

A Celtic Blessing:
May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
May the rains fall soft upon your fields and until we meet again,
May God hold you in the hollow of God’s hand.

Sally Vaughan
Daughter of Sara Ann and Woody Vaughan
School: Lovett
Future Plans: University of Colorado Boulder

Activities:
Counselor at Camp High Harbour, Young-Life, Musical Theatre, Honors Chorus and Honors Jazz Band, Leads a Bible Study

Proudest Accomplishment:
The fall semester of my sophomore year I went on a semester away to the Alzar school. It is based in Idaho but during the semester I spent 6 weeks abroad in Chile. Alzar is a school focused on leadership training with emphasis on outdoor education.

Where have you seen God’s presence in your journey?
I think God has been most present in my experience with Younglife club. I go to Younglife every Monday night and have been to many camps throughout my high school experience. It has brought me so much closer to God and stood has grown my faith tremendously.

Favorite thing about All Saints’:
I think my favorite thing about All Saints’ is the tradition. I have gone to All Saints’ my entire life and it has been a constant for me in a life full of changes.

What’s giving you hope and excitement for the future right now?
The transition to college

Future Plans: Samford University, studying musical theater

Activities:
All Saints’ Youth Choir, All Saints’ Director of Music Search, National Honors Society, Tri-M, Pebblebrook Gospel Choir, Girl Scouts

Proudest Accomplishment:
Earning the Girl Scout Gold Award.

Where have you seen God’s presence in your journey?
God has always been with me through music and nature. He has been especially present whenever I have gone to Kanuga.

Favorite thing about All Saints’:
My favorite thing about All Saints’ is that everyone has such a love for music.

We all sing together and it brings us closer as a community. My other favorite thing is the Youth Choir. I love singing with all my friends. My favorite person is Mrs. Kimmell. I will definitely be back every Christmas Eve to sing with the youth and alumni choir!

What’s giving you hope and excitement for the future right now?
Making music is definitely giving me hope. I also feel very comforted to know that I have a great college to go to in the fall where I can continue to study what I love.

Senior Saints!

What’s giving you hope and excitement for the future right now?
Independence and higher expectations will motivate me to work harder and achieve greater things.

Clare Coffman
Daughter of Mary Virginia and Peter Coffman
School: Atlanta Girls’ School
Future Plans: University of Georgia

Activities:
Theatre, student government, and Georgia Young Democrats, All Saints’ Youth Choir, Diocesan Youth Happening, and other Diocesan Episcopal Youth Community events.

Proudest Accomplishment:
Being an intern for Fefe Handy at Page Turners Make Great Learners is my proudest accomplishment as I was able to grow into the role and learn so much outside of my normal realm.

Where have you seen God’s presence in your journey?
God has been present in my journey in nature. I have grown a love of hiking through attending a camp in Colorado for the past 9 years. There have been many of those hikes where I am overwhelmed by the presence of God in beauty and longevity of nature. My purpose in other people’s lives has been made abundantly clear to me at camp and given me the opportunity to take my most faithful self home.

Favorite thing about All Saints’:
My favorite thing about All Saints’ is its dependability. There will never be a time when any member of the All Saints’ community, which is includes the surrounding area, cannot reach out and receive a helping hand or a shoulder. The time we are in right now proves that as All Saints’ has remained an important part of my week even through this period.

What’s giving you hope and excitement for the future right now?
There are a lot of unknowns, however, like All Saints’, there are many aspects of my life that I know will do everything they can to return to full strength. One of which is college! I am, of course, excited to enter this new phase. Going to a college closer to home has allowed me to reconnect with people I have known.

Isabella Sheehan
Daughter of Kevin and Elizabeth Sheehan
School: Atlanta Classical Academy
Future Plans: Hillsdale College, study English and Art
Activities:
Leader in Dance, Prom, and Yearbook Committee; Hiking Club, Senior Class Representative, tutoring younger students, school photographer, Boy Scouts Venture Program and trips to Sea Base in the Virgin Islands and Philmont Scout Ranch. Will be receiving Triple Crown Award in the summer after attending Northern Tier.

Proudest Accomplishment:
Coming to Christ, overcoming social anxiety, and coming to love education, all wrapped into one because they are all the same thing. My friends and teachers loved me despite all my fears and that alongside the great books we read changed my whole perspective on life. Now I am a completely different person.

Where have you seen God’s presence in your journey?
We started going to All Saints’ almost two years ago—time really flies. I wanted to get involved so I contacted Ms. Kathy and asked if I could help with children’s church. I been with them ever since then. I love getting to know them and listen to their incredibly insightful comments and questions – seriously, they are questions theologians still ask.

Favorite thing about All Saints’:
I have had so many people from my school and from colleges offer to pray for me which is very helpful. Also, quarantine has given me time to make lots of friends at Hillsdale. We have had many philosophical debates and discussions about life. I also think about the students I teach now at school – eighteen 1st graders whom I adore. I remember how much I love the mission of classical education, which is why I plan to continue studying, with the goal of teaching at a classical school.

And thank you, parents, for making choir a priority.

So thankful for Alvin Moore for the amazing lawn crosses on Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday, bringing an extra dose of light and love to Midtown.

Thank you to everyone who made and submitted flower crosses to celebrate Easter Sunday.
We loved the beauty and creativity and they added
so much joy to our Easter Sunday service!

To everyone who participated in the Hallelujah Chorus!
The video has been shared hundreds of times and viewed over ten thousand times! Thank you, so, so much!

We are so thankful for our sextons, Reece Johnson,
Mickey Dukes, Tyrone Jones, Benjemia Lee, Phil Turks, and Victor Young, who are keeping a watchful eye at the church during this time of quarantine. You all are the best!
Natosha Reid Rice Finds Scripture a Source of Hope

Chances are, you’ve heard Reverend Natosha Reid Rice share her theological brilliance from the pulpit by now. Perhaps you’ve heard her dynamic leadership in our Faith in the City series. No matter how you’ve come to know her, I’m excited to tell you part of Natosha’s story, and invite you to join us for Bible study at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday evenings during the Easter season. Our first session received over 1,600 views online! When I shared this news with Bishop Rob Wright, he said, “Episcopalians tuning in for a Bible study?! Well, I guess the lion really can lie down with the lamb. Keep up the great work!”

Over the course of eight weeks, All Saints’ clergy will partner with Natosha to study scripture passages that kindle hope and provide encouragement. It is a theological task to declare a doxology in the darkness. It is pastoral work to hold on to hope against hope. It is the essence of leadership to ask how God has worked in the past, and then to wonder how God calls us to lead now. It is also a joy to tell you something of Natosha’s story. She serves as the Associate General Counsel for Real Estate and Finance at Habitat for Humanity International. She’s an experienced lawyer, passionate about providing a voice to the voiceless and opportunities to communities that have been historically disadvantaged. Natosha was ordained in the African Methodist Episcopal Church, and she served for 11 years as the Associate Pastor for Women’s Ministries at the historic Ebenezer Baptist Church in Atlanta. She earned her J.D. from Harvard Law School, and is one of Atlanta Tribune’s 50 Women of Excellence, one of Atlanta’s 100 Most Influential Women by the Atlanta Business League. She is a gifted teacher, a passionate voice for justice, and a humble servant of God.

Youth Choir High School Seniors: 110 Years and Counting!

Each spring at the End-of-the-Year choir party, a large gathering of singers and parents lifts up and honors the high school seniors of our Youth Choir. For their service, seniors receive a personalized Bible and a specialized bookmark printed with prayers and anthems sung during their years in choir.

Due to current circumstances, the end-of-year event will not take place this spring, yet there are nine incredible youth we would like to honor; youth who have been dedicated to the choir program for many years: (pictured left to right, below) John Russ, Lewis James, Andrew Stevens, Adelaide Hudson, Natalie Rinck, Sarah Henn, Clare Coffman, (and not pictured) Iain Chambless, Lewis James, and Jamie Hare. Combined, this group represents an incredible 110 years of choir participation! Seven of the nine have participated in Youth and Children’s choirs since they were in Pre-Kindergarten. They have not only attended weekly rehearsals, but also performed in the Children’s Musicals, sung on Christmas Eve and Easter, traveled with the Youth Choir on out-of-town trips, and more.

This class has traveled and sung in New Orleans, Birmingham, Rome, Savannah, Gainesville, and St. Augustine. They are a talented group with a wide variety of interests in the arts, sports, languages, mathematics, travel, literature, and film. Each is a busy youth who has made time for church choir, bringing joy to and enhancing worship for all, each time they sing (and ring). On behalf of a grateful parish, thank you, to all of our choir seniors. And God bless! ✝

At the end of March, Bishop Wright directed all clergy to remain online for worship and not in-person until Sunday, May 24. To follow this directive and the guidance of our local and state governments, we pre-recorded our Sunday services and will continue broadcast them in the weeks to come. As all of our services have been pre-recorded, be assured that our staff are safe and at home during this period of social distance.

If you need help joining our online worship, please visit allsaintsatlanta.org/tips for detailed instructions and helpful tips or email Jocelyn Cassada at jcassada@allsaintsatlanta.org.

The deadline for The June/July issue of Monthly is Thursday, April 30. Please make your submission via our website, at allsaintsatlanta.org/news-and-events/announcements/. Thank you!
