

Morning Prayer, Rite II • 10:00 a.m.

Welcome to worship at All Saints'. We invite you to write prayer requests in the Facebook comments, we welcome you to sing and pray the liturgy with us, and we look forward to gathering in person, when it is safe to do so. May God's love bless us all.

Welcome and Announcements

The Word of God

Opening Sentences

Officiant This is the day that the Lord has made.
People Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Confession and Absolution

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

Reader Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm 17: 1, 4–7, 16

Reader Hear my plea of innocence, O Lord; give heed to my cry;

People listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

Reader Weigh my heart, summon me by night,

People melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

Reader My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law;

People in your paths my feet shall not stumble.

Reader I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me;

People incline your ear to me and hear my words.

Reader Show me your marvelous loving-kindness,

People O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise up against them.

Reader But at my vindication I shall see your face;

People when I awake, I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

Reader and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Lesson Genesis 32:22–31

The same night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maids, and his eleven children, and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. He took them and sent them across the stream, and likewise everything that he had. Jacob was left alone; and a man wrestled with him until daybreak. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he struck him on the hip socket; and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, "Let me go, for the day is breaking." But Jacob said, "I will not let you go, unless you bless me."

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

So he said to him, "What is your name?" And he said, "Jacob." Then the man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed." Then Jacob asked him, "Please tell me your name." But he said, "Why is it that you ask my name?" And there he blessed him. So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "For I have seen God face to face, and yet my life is preserved." The sun rose upon him as he passed Peniel, limping because of his hip.

The Gospel Matthew 14:13–21

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

Jesus withdrew in a boat to a deserted place by himself. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. When he went ashore, he saw a great crowd; and he had compassion for them and cured their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is now late; send the crowds away so that they may go into the villages and buy food for themselves.” Jesus said to them, “They need not go away; you give them something to eat.” They replied,

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

“We have nothing here but five loaves and two fish.” And he said, “Bring them here to me.” Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And all ate and were filled; and they took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

The Lord’s Prayer

Intercessor The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Intercessor Let us journey to the waters of God's refreshing kindness, as we offer our prayers and respond, "Hear us, good Lord."

That we may be prepared for the struggles of life, knowing that through suffering – we receive grace, and that in the midst of trials – Jesus is forming us in love; let us pray.

People Hear us, good Lord.

Intercessor That we may be satisfied beholding the likeness of others, as we see the face of Christ in each person, let us pray,

People Hear us, good Lord.

Intercessor That in our neighborhood, city, country and world --we may share our bread; let us pray.

People Hear us, good Lord.

Intercessor We pray to you also for the needs and concerns of this congregation (names are printed in today's bulletin):

We pray for the newly born and signs of new life;

We pray for the sick;

We pray for those who have died;

Finally, we lift up those who have requested our prayers.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Intercessor Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon The Rev. Sarah C. Stewart

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

Blessing

May you be a new creation: Christ to whom Christ will surely send you. And the blessing of God almighty, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, be upon you this day and forever more. Amen.

Dismissal

Officiant Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.
