God is love, and where true love is

God himself is there. there.

1. Here in Christ we gather, love of Christ our calling.
 2. When we Christians gather, members of one Body,
 3. Grant us love's fulfillment, joy with all the blessed,

Christ, our love, is with us, gladness be his greeting.
 let there be in us no discord but one spirit.
 when we see your face, O Savior, in its glory.

Let us fear and love him, holy God eternal.
 Banished now be anger, strife and every quarrel.
 Shine on us, O purest, Light of all creation,

Loving him, let each love Christ in one another.
 Christ, our God, be always present here among us.
 be our bliss while endless ages sing your praises.

Welcome and Announcements

Opening Sentences

Officiant This is the day that the Lord has made.

People Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

Confession and Absolution

Officiant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Officiant and People

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Invitatory and Psalter

Reader Lord, open our lips.

People And our mouth shall proclaim your praise. Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Psalm 149:1–5,9

Reader Alleluia! Sing to God a new song;

People Sing praise in the congregation of the faithful.

Reader Let the people of Israel rejoice in their Maker;

People Let the children of Zion be joyful in their Monarch.

Reader Let them praise God's Name in the dance;

People Let them sing praise with timbrel and harp.

Reader God takes pleasure in the people

People And adorns the poor with victory.

Reader Let the faithful rejoice in triumph;

People Let them be joyful on their beds.

Reader God will offer the judgment decreed;

People This is glory for all God's faithful people. Alleluia!

Reader and People

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

The First Lesson Exodus 12:1–14

Jerry Byrd

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the Lord. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the Lord. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, “You shall not commit adultery; You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not covet”; and any other commandment, are summed up in this word, “Love your neighbor as yourself.” Love does no wrong to a neighbor; therefore, love is the fulfilling of the law.

moment for you to wake from sleep. For salvation is nearer to us now than when we became believers; the night is far gone, the day is near. Let us then lay aside the works of darkness and put on the armor of light; let us live honorably as in the day, not in reveling and drunkenness, not in debauchery and licentiousness, not in quarreling and jealousy. Instead, put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, to gratify its desires.

Besides this, you know what time it is, how it is now the

Hymn Meditation “Go down, Moses”

African American Spiritual
 arr. the Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Barnett

Dr. Andrew K. Barnett, piano Craig Shaw, double bass Chris Burroughs, drums

1. When Is - rael was in E - gypt's land, Let my peo-ple go;
 2. The Lord told Mo - ses what to do,
 3. They jour-neyed on at his com-mand,
 4. Oh, let us all from bond-age flee, op - pressed so hard they could not stand, Let my peo-ple go;
 to lead the chil-dren of Is - rael through,
 and came at length to Ca - naan's land,
 and let us all in Christ be free,
 Go down, Mo - ses, way down in E - gypt land;
 Tell old Pha - raoh to let my peo - ple go!"

The Gospel Matthew 18:15–20

Reader A reading from the Gospel of Matthew.

Jesus said, “If another member of the church sins against you, go and point out the fault when the two of you are alone. If the member listens to you, you have regained that one. But if you are not listened to, take one or two others along with you, so that every word may be confirmed by the evidence of two or three witnesses. If the member refuses to listen to them, tell it to the church; and if the offender refuses to listen even to the church, let such a one be to you as a Gentile and a tax collector. Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven. Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven. For where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them.”

Reader The word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Lord’s Prayer

Intercessor The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Intercessor Let us pray.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Missi McMorries

Intercessor As the Church, the Body of Christ in this time and place, let us offer our prayers, responding, “Lord, hear our prayer.”

That we may love the Lord with our whole heart, and soul, and mind, and our neighbor as our selves, claiming the great commandment as our pathway and destination; let us pray.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor That our love may be revealed through our actions, as we commit ourselves to visiting those who are in prison, or confined to their homes, or living in nursing facilities, that in seeing their face we will see the face of Jesus; let us pray.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor For the grace to turn away from anything that places a barrier between God’s love and our actions, so that in turning back to Jesus we may receive mercy for the past and strength for the future; let us pray.

People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor We pray to you also for the needs and concerns of this congregation:

We pray for the newly born and signs of new life (names of the newly born will be read aloud);

We pray for the sick (names of those who are ill will be read aloud);

We pray for those who have died (names of those who have died will be read aloud);

Finally, we lift up those who have requested our prayers.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us;
granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

Intercessor Let us bless the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Sermon The Rev. Dr. Andrew K. Barnett

A period of silent prayer follows the sermon.

The MICAHA Project

One Step Beyond Caution: The Ministers' Manifesto of 1957 with Ethel Ware Carter

Today, 9:00–9:55 a.m., on Zoom

An Atlanta pastor asked how the pulpits could be silent when the Georgia Legislature was discussing closing the public schools rather than integrating them. A group of ministers responded publicly changing the climate in the city. Join Ethel Ware Carter to learn more about this pivotal moment in history.

Threads and Refugee Ministries: Serving the City with Louisa Merchant and Lori Guarisco

Today, 9:00–9:55 a.m., on Zoom

Louisa Merchant, Director of Refugee Ministries, and Lori Guarisco, Coordinator of Threads, share stories about their work with people who were formerly refugees and children. Learn what's happening during the pandemic and discuss ways to become part of broader solutions in the city.

Please visit allsaintsatlanta.org/adult-formation to register.

Jesus on the Front Page

Sundays, 9:00–9:55 a.m., on Zoom

Join this ongoing discussion of the news of the day and how we are called as Christians to respond in the public arena, in our private lives, and in our prayers.

Please visit allsaintsatlanta.org/adult-formation to register.

Saints & Service: Canned Goods Collection Competition Drop-off on Sunday, September 6, 12:00–1:30 p.m., in the church parking lot

We're pivoting our annual Labor Day service event from a sandwich make to a canned goods collection for the Atlanta Food Bank, which is currently in need of all the donations they can get. Here's how to help:

- Offer to pick up canned goods from your neighbors
- Purchase BOGO items while you are grocery shopping
- Bag up your donations and make a "drive-and-drop" at the church

Donations will be weighed and a winner will be declared and a prize awarded for the heaviest donation made!

For more information, contact Kathy Roberts at kr Roberts@allsaintsatlanta.org.
